Courageous Mother

Mrs. John Larmour, Terry and John, III, until recently of 197 Forest Street, are pictured five months after the young mother was afflicted with polio. John was born on November 7, about six weeks after she was stricken but was not affected by the disease that is being fought so vigorously by those who contribute to the March of Dimes.

—Friends were glad to greet Franklin Hawkes, former resident, in town last week. He hopes to find a home here.

Citizens' Comm. Names Five For Qualifications

Tuesday night the Citizens' Committee named five members to the important qualifications committee at a meeting held in the Old Town Hall. Phil Pelligrini presided.

The two members nominated and elected from the floor are John Wright and Francis Pierce. The three appointed by the Citizens' Committee are John O'Neill, William Houser and John Mulcahy.

Due to the illness of Chairman Bill Dunn, it is understood that Pelligrini made the appointments after conferring with Dunn.

It was voted to change the by-laws to include an assistant corresponding secretary. Two other proposed amendments were tabled. One of these provides for a seven-man qualifications committee, the other, withdrawing the Committee's endorsement of a candidate who supports any other candidate not endorsed.

Edison Co. Asks Rate Increase

Monday night the Joint Board met with emissaries of The Boston Edison Co. to hear a request for a rate increase on street lighting. The estimated increase to the Town's annual bill is $2,000.

Attending the hearing also were Representatives Gott and McAvoy. The Board went on record as being opposed to the proposition.

It is understood that formal hearings in Boston will be held at a later date. The increase is being asked of forty towns and cities served by the company.

TRAGEDY AVERTED BY HEROISM OF FAMOUS LOCAL DESIGNER

Two small boys were saved from the drowning in Spy Pond last Saturday afternoon by the heroic rescue, urday by John H. Emerson. He carried the boys back to the lives at 44 Hopkins road on the shore of the lake near the spot where the boys fell through the ice.

Billy Connors, the 9-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Connors of 200 Broadway, and 8-year-old Douglas Martell, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Martell of 54 Tufts street, both pupils at the Crosby School, were walking across the ice when they fell in.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson happened to be looking out of the window and saw the boys floundering. He took them to the shore, where they were kept overnight.

Reports have it that the boys were looking out of the window in the near tragedy.

It is not known for Emerson's prompt, son rushed out of the house, grabbing a rope and long-handled push broom on the way. Before reaching the danger spot, he lay prone.

PLANS FOR THE CENTRE

The outlined plans proposed by the Planning Board to relieve the traffic situation in the centre of the town are interesting, not to say startling. That changes are essential should be apparent to everyone. One has to search far and wide to find a lay-out of a town more conducive to traffic congestion and stagnation.

The startling side of the plans stems from three facts. First, they do not resemble anything like we had imagined or had ever heard suggested. From this standpoint they are hard to digest at first glance. We therefore call upon all Town Meeting Members to give them adequate, personal study.

Secondly, the plans call for no large expense. In fact, the amount of money involved is surprisingly low. Heretofore wild guesses as to the needs for an improved centre have ranged as high as a million and a half dollars. The Board's estimate of around $150,000 is therefore a surprise on the right side.

The third surprising fact the plans and study reveal is that the intra-town traffic on Mystic and Pleasant streets is only 25 percent. A full 75 percent is bound from outside the town to a point still inside. The solution should be therefore, as the proposed plans try to do, is get these vehicles through as expeditiously as possible to make room for truly local traffic.

Whether any plan devised for our centre can be better perfect is doubtful. We do feel the Planning Board has done an excellent and concrete job helping us in our dilemma.

WRONG SUPPOSITION

Several people have stated to us that they assumed that the Advocate is supporting the "changes in town government" because of the recent publicity we have given the plan. This assumption is wrong.

In our issue of two weeks ago we deliberately headlined the charts "committee publishes this chart," hoping that our readers would correctly construe this to mean the material was part of the committee's information program.

We expect to publish material in the near future presenting the opposite view.

There is no doubt about the position of this paper—informing our readers as to both sides of the issue.

Large Committee For Charity Party

Scholarships For Aviation-Minded

Aviation-minded young men will be interested in the generous scholarships to be awarded this year by the East Coast Aero Tech School at the Bedford Airport. The conditions are outlined below.

Selection of the scholarship winners will be made by an independent Board of Judges to be appointed each year.

The annual awards will be as follows:

That Man About Town

By MAT

Usually it is those who gripe the most about the way the town government is run who are the hardest to get to the polls. Far too many citizens take the view that it's just too much trouble to go to the polls on election day. We understand that several thousands in Arlington haven't even taken the trouble to register. Last year the turnout of voters was about 50% of those eligible. Doesn't it seem a shame that so many fail to assist in electing the very officials who are going to run the town's business and spend the taxpayers' money?

The Citizens' Committee is an active force bucking this lethargy. The next meeting of the committee will be held Monday, January 30, at 8 p. m. in the Old Town Hall. Be there with your buck and your help.

There are other groups, too, working directly and indirectly toward the same goal. Join one or join all—do something!

Putting together the latest announcements, it now looks as though practically every town office will be contested. The picture is now fairly clear to political observers who predict a hot and heavy campaign. The major surprise, so far, is that the contest for Selectman starts off like last year's. One candidate had no opponent for many weeks and in the closing moments of filing for office, up pops a rival. Stephen S. Donoghue has been announced for Selectman this week and Edmund L. Frost, the first entrant, will be opposed.

We understand that Mr. Donoghue claims no surprise—that he was a selectman candidate all the time—that there was a mix-up as to his intentions at the Town Clerk's office.

Last week we heard of a motorist who harassed a bus on the Turnpike by slowing down in front of it and then when the bus driver tried to pass, speeding and slowing alternately. This is an example of perhaps the most hazardous and contemptible trick that can be practiced by irresponsible motorists.

We have found it a mighty interesting exploration expedition to note the various Revolutionary War tablets scattered throughout the town. They attest to the fact that Colonial residents of Arlington did their share, with Lexington, toward bringing about the "shot heard 'round the world". A trip through Pleasant street cemetery is also a mighty interesting adventure. It is surprising how long some of our early settlers lived without benefit of vitamin capsules, penicillin and the sulfa drugs. But then their lives were not so complicated or nerve-wracking as ours today.

On Jan. 16, the Disabled Veterans, Arlington Chapter No. 49, visited the Veterans Hospital, Bedford, Massachusetts, where they conducted a bingo game and distributed free cigarettes and candy to the patients.

Very truly yours,
Disabled American Veterans

Editor,
Arlington Advocate
Arlington, Mass.

Dear Sir:

It is very gratifying to me personally as it must be to the citizens of Arlington generally that Mr. Harold Magnuson has announced his candidacy for the office of Town Moderator in the coming March 6th election.

Traditionally, our town moderators have been noted for their intellectual ability, their high civic-mindedness and their impartiality. Mr. Magnuson's qualifications along these lines are so outstanding that he will make a most worthy successor to such former Moderators as Ernest W. Davis, William Barry, John Colbert and Judge Brackett.

The office of Moderator is one of great importance in Town Government. The Moderator not only presides at all Town Meetings, but he has many other powers such as appointing members of special committees and the all-important town Finance Committee.

The Moderator is generally regarded as the number one citizen in our Town Government.

Mr. Magnuson in my opinion has the education, the experience, the integrity and the personality to be a good, impartial Moderator.

I think Arlington is fortunate he is willing to serve.

Celebrates 94th

On January 19, Mrs. Bertha (Donath) Duhn, one of the town's most aged residents, celebrated her 94th birthday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William Fleutje of 35 Birch street.

Mrs. Duhn came to this country from Germany at the age of eighteen, residing in East Cambridge where she was married to Herman Duhn in 1882. Later they moved to West Somerville where they lived for 40 years. After the death of her husband she sold her home and lived with her daughter, Anna Horst of Lexington. Since the death of Mrs. Horst she has made her home in Arlington with another daughter, Mrs. Emma Covey.

There is a son, Herman of Medford, 7 grandchildren and 9 great-grandchildren.

CHURCHES OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

"Love" is the Lesson-Sermon subject for Sunday, January 29. Golden Text: "The Lord hath appeared of old unto me, saying, Yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love: therefore with loving kindness have I drawn thee" (Jeremiah 31:3).

Sermon: Passages from the Bible (King James Version) include:

"God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him" (1 John 4:16). Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include:

"The depth, breadth, height, might, majesty, and glory of infinite Love fill all space. That is enough! Human language can repeat only an infinitesimal part of what exists. The absolute ideal man, is no more seen nor comprehended by mortals, than is his infinite Principle, Love" (p. 520).

The maid of honor wore a corsage of white roses with her pink satin gown. The groom's mother was also gowned in pink satin, and wore a corsage of roses and sweet peas. Among the special guests was the bride's father, who came from Newfoundland to attend the wedding.

The groom attended Arlington High School, and is now a Navy 2nd class pharmacist and petty officer. He is currently based at Argentina, Newfoundland. A. H. S. MAKES SCRAMBLED EGGS OF G.B.I. WITH 1-0 MELROSE WIN

Arlington pulled the upset of the winter by edging Melrose, 1-0. Stoneham wasn't far behind by slaughtering Medford 6-1. Rindge squeezed by Belmont 2-1 and the G.B.I. became a sizzling hot skillet of scrambled eggs. Only one session to go—and five teams within one point of the top and each other.

The story of Arlington's inspired win last Saturday over the fast skating Melrose squad was that of a team rather than any individual effort. It was Jack Kenny who scored the game's only goal. It was Bobby Babine who hustled like mad every time he was on the ice and who set up the winning marker. It was Kiley and Dickson who time after time knocked the Melrose attack apart when it seemed likely to counter. It was Russell's amazing work in the nets that shut the door continually.

But most important of all, it was the best coached squad in the league that fashioned the upset. The Red and Gray plays like a team, and that is the difference. It skates its lanes, doesn't bunch up and make wild scrambles for the puck. It uses short and long passes which connect often.

All the schoolboy teams have about equal fight. Some, like Medford and Melrose, have much better skaters than the others. But, this observer believes, Arlington is better grounded in basic hockey techniques. As a result, what it lacks in innate ability, it makes up in good, sound hockey fundamentals.

The summary and standings: ARLINGTON—Russell, g.; Kiley, id.; Dickson, rd.; Kenney, lw; Babine, c; Doherty, rw. MELROSE—Baker, g.; Hennigar, rd.; Cleoria, id.; Lee, rw; Titus, c; Peters, lw. Arlington spares—Cooney, O'Brien, Meehan, Wyam. Melrose spares—Kelley, Cox.

PAL LOST

"Donny," a large dachshund (not pure bred) is lost! His master, Little Carl Page who has just returned home from the Children's Hospital with a serious heart ailment, is disconsolate at his pal's disappearance.

The dog has been boarding with Carl's relatives on Academy st. here. He carries a Belmont license—No. 4. The heartbroken boy lives at 11 Frost rd. in Belmont. Any help will be appreciated.

WOMEN'S CIRCLE

At the meeting of the Women's Circle of the Trinity Church Tuesday, Mrs. L. Curtis Foye was guest speaker. She gave an interesting book review. The meeting was conducted by the president, Miss Lillian Hoyt, and music was provided by Warren Swinimer, who sang several solos, accompanied by Mrs. Herbert Wallace. Mrs. Robert Boyd and Mrs. Harry Earle and their committee served refreshments.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ira Jones were dinner guests last week at the home of Dr. and Mrs. David R. Kennedy.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

PACK 87

An Indoor Olympics featured the January meeting of Cub Pack 87 at the Cutter School. The event, directed by Cubmaster Robert Bowser, William Mowat and Carl Freyer, was highlighted by such sports as balloon-throwing, paper-bag shot-put, running high whistle, and a standing broad-grin. Some amazing talent was shown in the discus-throwing contest, a new use for paper plates.

Highest scorers in the nine events of the evening were Mrs. Carl Freyer's Den 3 members. Mrs. Don Johnston's Den 2 took second-place honors. Mrs. Freyer gave Den 3 a clean sweep by her own winning of the den mothers' balloon-bursting contest.

A Bobcat ceremony was conducted for six boys, including Robert Von Hein, Orrin Emerson, Paul Cioffi, Philip Malatesta, Richard Najarian, and Gordon Plummer. One new den has been added to the pack led by Mrs. G. L. Plummer.

At a separate meeting with the parents, Cubmaster Bowser explained the program outlined for the year and asked the parents for their support in making Cubbing a success. One of the programs outstanding for its enthusiastic acceptance is a series of boxing classes to be given under the instructions of former pugilist Bill Fitzpatrick, now employed at the Cutter School.

Chairman Carl Freyer read the parents a letter from the Metropolitan State Hospital at Waltham expressing appreciation for the boys sent to the children at the hospital this Christmas by the members of Pack 87.

PACK 20

Talent Night was held by Pack 20, Cub Scouts, in the Brackett School Hall, last Friday night with the presentation of a minstrel show. J. W. Walker, cubmaster, was the interlocutor, and the end, men, in the traditional black-face, were Charles Buxton, Gerald Gray, Robert Hannaford and Edward Kenney.

A capable chorus, under the direction of Mrs. G. Chester Acorn and Mrs. Richard Talcott, furnished music between the jokes and the special numbers.

Solos and specialty numbers were presented by John Huffman, Steven Cutler, Robert Reid, Richard McElligott, David Dwelley, James Hodges, Ronald Reynolds and John Ottoson. They showed ability to entertain.

Sketches were presented by Den 3 (Mrs. Downes), Den 6 (Mrs. Benson), Den 7 (Mrs. Acorn), and Den 8 (Mrs. Mark).

As an added attraction, songs, tunes played on the "bones" and the harmonica were furnished by Chuck Mara and his troupe from Concord.

Red and Gray Jottings

Arlington High School's inspired hockey sextet turned in a thrilling 1-0 victory over Melrose last Saturday at the Arena and also threw the G.B.L. League standings into as close a race as has been seen in the senior schoolboy circuit in many years. As a result of Arlington's win, Melrose and Rindge are currently sharing first place with but one point separating them from three second place teams—Arlington, Stoneham and Medford.

The girls' basketball team started off the first game of the season with a 21-14 defeat. The Somerville forwards were extremely powerful in their set shots, while excellent guarding of Mary Heffernan, Roz Cameron and Carole Dale for the locals, prevented the score from raising any higher.

Congratulations to the cast of A. H. S. Dramatic Club's presentation of "You Can't Take It With You." The large cast, including Barbara Mills as "Penelope", the accidental playwright, whose writing career began when a typewriter was delivered at the house by mistake; Frank Vento as "Boris", the ballet teacher, and Mary Anne Donahue as "Essie", the erstwhile candy-maker who has been Boris' pupil for a mere eight years. Paul and Mr.

The seniors obtained their class rings last Friday and are now proudly displaying them.

The Year Book committee is in hopes of having a white cover on this year's book and maroon lettering, which will be very striking. This is a new idea and will be a change from the maroon cover. The white cover will be washable and there is little chance of it getting more soiled than the latter.

Ring Predicts $51.80 For Local Tax Rate

On Thursday evening, Jan. 19, the Local Affairs Committee of the Arlington League of Women Voters sponsored a general meeting for the members, their husbands and friends at the Robbins Library Hall. Mrs. Richard Bolt, president of the Arlington League of Women Voters, presided, and Mrs. John Curtis, chairman of the Local Affairs Committee, introduced the speaker, Mr. Hallam T. Ring.

Mr. Ring spoke on Town Finances. In his remarks Ring predicted a local tax rate of $51.80. Mrs. Roy Freed spoke briefly on coming issues in the League's current agenda to be presented at the National Convention of Women Voters in May.

At the annual Camellia Show of the Massachusetts Horticultural Society, held last week in Boston, one of the prize winners was Watson Camellias Gardens, Inc. of Arlington. The prize was a silver medal, and was awarded for a display of camellias and camellia wedding arrangements.

SCOUTS TO GET GOV. "KNOW HOW"

On the afternoon of Monday, Feb. 6, the officials of the various town departments will be hosts to the local Boy Scouts. They will explain the workings of their particular department in detail. This educational phase is in conjunction with National Boy Scout Week. A letter was written by the scouts to each department, petitioning its cooperation which was universally granted.

James W. Gott, formerly of Highland Ave., Arlington, and now associated with the American Optical Co. in Dallas, Texas, has taken up his new duties as sales manager of the sunglasses division, covering Texas, Oklahoma and Louisiana.

The Hospitality committee will include Clifford W. Birch, Jr., Peter Gray, 3rd, Harold J. Lovering, Jr., J. Kenneth MacLeod, Benjamin L. Moltman, Milton C. Paige, Jr., John O. Parker, Robert P. Allan, George A. Riese, John W. Shilliday, Robert W. Shilliday, Richard C. Sargent, Franklin D. Volo, James B. Wilcox, Walter L. Wilcox and James W. Wilson.

Preceding the meeting a delicious dinner was served by a group of young women in the church, with Mrs. David G. Colwell as chairman.

Adult Gym Class

At the High School Gym last Tuesday night a group of over thirty adults turned out for their first work out in the men's gym class. A good showing on this first night promises well for the future. Basket shooting proved most popular and calisthenics readily proved to all present that all were not in too good shape physically and that further workouts were needed.

More interested in this program should report to the old gym at the High School on next Tuesday evening at 7:00 p.m.

TRAFFIC RELIEF

professional services were engaged by the Board. Mr. Blackwell resides in Lexington and is a recognized planner in this field.

The traffic survey, conducted by the Police department last May and June, showed that north and south bound traffic along Pleasant st. is 75 percent "through" traffic with origin and destination outside the town's limits. The proposed plans are designed to facilitate this transient flow.

Monstrosity

Northbound traffic along Pleasant st. will cross Massachusetts ave., taking a slight swing of about 10 degrees to the right, and enter the "new" Mystic st. which will be one-way, going north. Vehicles upon arrival at the foot of the hill at Chestnut st. will either turn right into Chestnut or continue along Mystic, still one-way—whichever is desired by the driver.

Traffic from Chestnut st., bound south, will not make the present sharp turn into Mystic st. but by a lesser curve will continue across the A&P parking space and join the new lane, explained above, which originated at Brookdale rd.

According to the lay-out, the removal of the Old Town Hall is not essential. The old structure has been labeled a "monstrosity" by many. "Whether it stands or comes down makes no difference to the Planning Board," Mr. Abbott said. "Most of the people we've talked to seem to favor its removal."

More Parking Space

The three lanes or arteries will divide the Peirce & Winn parking lot into three large areas. One area will be located where the upper end of Mystic street is now, adjacent to the sidewalk now fronting the group of stores there. This area, the smallest, will accommodate 35 cars.

The second area will be bounded by the "new" Mystic st. and the Chestnut-Prescott street "extension," providing space for 80 vehicles. Further west another large 80-car area is provided. The three areas will thus provide parking for over 200 cars.

A previous estimate by Fay, Spofford and Thorndike as to the capacity of the present Peirce & Winn area was 175 cars. The reason that this area will hold space for more cars even though dissected by three traffic lanes is that a former street area will be utilized as well as part of the A&P lot.

Low Cost

Mr. Abbott pointed out that as to land takings the changes involve only a small amount of private property. Recent assessed valuations of all the privately owned properties is under $50,000. He stated further that an informal guess by a non-local highway engineer put the total cost of the roadways, sidewalks, curbs and drainage at less than $150,000. Naturally, it is hoped that the State and County will share in the expense since the important Routes 3 and 60 are involved and since most of the traffic is not local.

In previous meetings the Planning Board has held discussions with the Joint Board as well as Police Chief Archie Bullock. These officials are reported to be in favor. An article will appear in the warrant of the annual Town Meeting to obtain a green light vote from the members.

Republican Club Hears Talk On "Life Can Be Fun"

The Arlington Women's Republican Club met in Legion Hall yesterday afternoon. Desserts in great variety were furnished by the members of the board. Mrs. Herbert Reed and Mrs. J. Philip Bower poured.

Mrs. Hollis M. Gott presided at the short business meeting which was followed by a humorous lecture given by Mary Maningham in which she proved that "Life Can Be Fun." The speaker urged parents to teach the virtue of fun as well as duty.

Mrs. Hallam T. Ring served as chairman of the ticket committee.

Polio Drive Not Assured Success

"Time is running out on the March of Dimes campaign," says William J. Sinclair, local chairman. The drive will continue until Tuesday next week and it is imperative that all the people of Arlington return their coin collection cards by then if the drive is to reach its record goal. Returns should be directed to Box 75, Arlington 74.

It is pointed out that the Polio Foundation is in a very weakened financial condition and needs wholehearted support if the victims of this great crippler are to receive the care that they so badly need. The drive, though better than last year so far, must be much more heavily supported if which Arlington people receive no direct benefit.

Town Topic

—Word comes from New Hampton School at New Hampton, N. H., that Richard Brenton has been elected a member of the reception committee for the Winter Carnival to be held on Jan. 28. Brenton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald S. Brenton of 32 Kenilworth road.

record goal, Mr. Sinclair stated. Arlington residents are also reminded that if they must give to the fund where they work, it is important that they contribute mainly in Arlington because half of what they give here stays at home to help their families and their neighbors. All contributions given outside Middlesex County ter than last year so far, must be much more heavily supported if which Arlington people receive no direct benefit.

Adventures In Correspondence

In this issue: Missionaries give Portuguese names to full-blooded Indian converts . . . Indians not so hideous, illiterate . . . any red Indians in U.S.A.? . . . Who is richer, Ford or Eastman? . . . Viking defames Iceland.

INDIA (14).—Oct. 6:—I learned of you through Mr. Siva Shankar. I made his acquaintance only three months back, as he has recently joined our college and is staying at the same hostel as I do. As for Mr. ——— I don't know him from Adam.

No wonder my nationality set you guessing. My name is no doubt Portuguese but I am not. As a matter of fact I am a pure Indian. By blood I am a Hindu, but my ancestors were converted to Christianity several generations ago, and ever since then we have all been Christians. The missionaries that did the christening, being Portuguese, naturally gave a Portuguese name to their converts.

As to Indian head dresses they vary from place to place. From what I have seen of Javanese head dresses, I think the nearest approach to them in India are the turbans worn by the people of Dharwar in the Bombay presidency. The "Tiger of Mysore" you refer to is a nickname applied to Tipu Sultan, once the ruler of our state, who gave the British army a deuce of a time until they bagged him at last. He was the son of Hyder Ali, a fierce mountain chief. Three historic wars ensued and finally Tipu was beheaded in his fort at Seringapatam and died fighting for his liberty. I am sending you a photograph of the place where Tipu fell. The whole town is in ruins now but is a place of great historic interest.

"The Times of India" which you say you receive, is, I think, the best journal for giving you a general idea of India. I may say, however, that the editors have, in common with the Britishers in general, the unhappy gift of picturing and rather over-stressing the dark and dirty side of Indian life. We here are not quite so hideous, illiterate or unrepresentable as they make us appear.

It is of course true that there are certain persons here very like and even worse than those depicted in "The Times of India" but they are the exception rather than the rule. You will agree that it is not fair to form an opinion of a city by merely looking at its slums.

As for Kipling, he is as much a favourite here as he is down your way and although many of his characters are drawn for a purpose, they are on the whole, realistic. I wonder if you have come across his touching poem "Gunga din." Perhaps one of the best and most authoritative writer on India is St. Kihal Singh. He is a journalist of international fame and you have doubtless seen some of his articles in the English and Indian magazines.

Here are a few questions to "wind you up" as you put it. I should like to know the average cost of living out there, both in the cities and in the country, also if there are any red Indians there still, and the sort of life they lead. How many days is it from New York to Mexico, Argentina, Brazil etc? What is the state of affairs in Mexico at present? Are there any such thing as cowboys or do they exist only in the films? Who is the richer, Ford or Eastman? Who are Mormons and what is the nature of their creed? Do you think the League of Nations a practicable idea? —G.

ICELAND (15) Aug. 26:—I am 24 years old and have been married 2 years. I am working in an office. I was born here in Reykjavik and have spent all my life here.

When a boy of eight, I lived in the country to take care of sheep and horses. I was very fond of that.

Many foreigners think here is snow and ice the whole year, and polar bears and wolves are strolling around, also that we live in snow houses and are Eskimos. But it is far from so. We have many schools, a University and Industrial and Commercial School, so you see we Icelanders are far from Eskimos.

The first man who settled here was a Norwegian viking named Floki Valgardsson who spent the winter 865-6 here and gave it its name. No doubt he found a grim satisfaction in giving the country the ill sounding name for he was in a sour mood, after through his own negligence lost all his cattle during the winter, and after his return to Norway he did his best to defame the newly discovered island. —H.

Miss Lois J. Estabrook Is Married At First Baptist Church Saturday

At the First Baptist Church on Thomas W. Cuddy of North Saturday afternoon, Jan. 21, Miss Brookfield and Ensign Bruce C. Lois Jackson Estabrook, the Garlinghouse of Lansing, Mich. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold. The matron of honor wore a M. Estabrook of 56 Gray street, period gown of gold velvet, became the bride of Ralph J. and carried a bouquet of talliesman Bradford, Jr., the son of Mr. and roses, with a band of matching Mrs. Ralph J. Bradford of Lansing flowers in her hair. The bridesmaid, Pa. Mr. Estabrook is a maid in emerald green performed bands of yellow roses. The flower the ceremony, and the bride was girl's rose velvet gown was given in marriage by her father, made colonial style, and she carried a basket of pink roses to match the flowers in her head.

The bride wore a gown of white satin with court train, the neck-line outlined with seed pearls and the skirt trimmed with lace in- Her net veil fell from the guest circle of white satin, and she carried a bouquet of sweet peas and white roses centered by an orchid.

The groom, who is an Ensign in the Navy, graduated from the United States Maritime Academy at Kings Point, Long Island. The bride was graduated from Arlington High School with the class of 1945, from Linden Hall Junior College in Little Rock, Ark., and from the Pierce Secretarial School in Boston.

The best man was Ensign Allan J. Knight of Howell, Michigan; and the ushers were Ensign in Norfolk, Virginia.

UNIVERSITY THEATRE

The rest of the Jolson story, "Jolson Sings Again" opens Sunday at the University Theatre for four days. Larry Parks again is starred as the world's greatest entertainer, with Barbara Hale starred as Jolson's wife, the Army nurse who insists he return to singing because that is what he wants to do. Prominently featured in the film, which has color by Technicolor, are William Demarest, Ludwig Donath, Bill Goodwin, Mayron McCormack, and Tamara Shayne.

"Tension," the companion film starring Richard Basehart, Audrey Totter, Cyd Charisse and Barry Sullivan is described as one of the season's most unusual and fascinating thrillers. Set against a background of Los Angeles and its vicinity, the action takes place around such famous spots as Malibu Beach, Downtown Los Angeles, Westwood, Beverly Hills and the swank Sunset Strip.

"The Fallen Idol" which starts Thursday is a most unusual film. Winner of four coveted international awards, the best way to describe it would be to say it has everything—but the treatment is unlike anything yet seen on the screen! There is Love, Hate, Suspense, Drama, Humor, Cynicism, Action, Beauty, Tenderness and a curious Whimsicality that creeps into this moving story of a young boy who gets entangled in an eternal triangle drama which ends in tragedy and how his well intentioned efforts to clear his butler friend from suspicion nearly sends the latter to the gallows. Besides starring Sir Ralph Richardson and Michele Morgan, "The Fallen Idol" serves to introduce young Bobby Henrey to American moviegoers. This sensational nine-year-old youngster, in his first appearance before the cameras, is being hailed as the "greatest kid since Coogan." A rollicking love story laid in New York City forms the theme of "Holiday Affair," the companion feature, with Robert Mitchum, Janet Leigh and Wendell Corey co-starring.

CAMPFIRE NOTES

At the monthly Campfire Council meeting, Jan. 11, it was reported that a total of 1300 boxes of mints have been sold, with Mrs. Mary Cheney's group leading with over 400 boxes to their credit and more on order. There are still a few boxes left, and may be obtained by contacting Hallam Ring, AR 5-0081.

The "Hi-Ho" Blue-Bird group under the leadership of Mrs. George Symmer and Mrs. William Young received this week a very nice "Thank-You" note from Mr. Rich of Symmes Hospital for the "Pop-Corn" tree the children of the group had made and donated to Symmes Hospital children's ward for Christmas.

Two groups of Blue-Birds under the leadership of Mrs. George Symmer and Mrs. William Young, Mrs. Charles Burton and Mrs. Laura Hawkins attended the radio program "The Little Red Wagon" on Dec. 30. The children had a wonderful time. Those attending were Marsha Rugg, Gail Ackseter, Judy Gerney, Joanne Symmer, Kathleen Walker, Natalie Lowell, Marsha Young, Mary Gay Bellizia, Susan Hawkins, Nancy Solo, Frances Cherone, Janice-Long, Diana Kelleher, Linda Fahnlley and Caroline Quaqueste.

EVENING ALLIANCE

Why Should a Dollar's Worth of Travel Continue to Cost You $1¹⁵?

"IS THIS TRIP NECESSARY?" you were asked in 1941, when every inch of space was needed for troops and war supplies.

To discourage travel then, a tax was added on your travel dollar, a tax that grew to 15% during the war. The Federal Government collected it through the railroads. The Government still collects it, though your travel need not be rationed now.

Today, the original purpose of this tax is as obsolete as an Air Warden's helmet. But, four years after the war's end, YOU are still paying the Government at the rate of $250,000,000 a year in travel tax.

And, of the billion and three quarters collected since 1941, over half came out of your pocket after the green light on travel went on again.

You don't have food rationing today . . . you don't have gasoline rationing today.

Yet, a very real brake is still being put on travel. On a coach trip from New York to Chicago, for example, YOU are still paying $4.61 in Federal tax.

And the same with the goods that are shipped to your home community. On every dollar you pay for freight, you pay the Government an extra 3 cents (4¢ a ton on coal). That means YOU are still paying over $300,000,000 a year—freight tax alone.

This tax should be repealed NOW. There is no longer any reason you should pay $1.15 for every dollar's worth of travel . . . $1.03 for every dollar of railroad freight.

money held at the Universalist Church vestry. A large group of friends and officials gathered to witness the historic occasion which was preceded by a dinner.

Mrs. Gordon Williams, commissioner, gave the welcome and introduced Albert Wunderly, Master of Ceremonies.

After Mrs. Harold Yeames had given a history of the Camp, which was instituted in her long regime, present and former campers told what Menotomy had meant to them. They are Barbara Gaudet, Betty Center and Mrs. Lee Cursey Klein.

The actual burning was preceded by an impressive spectacle with campers holding illuminated letters, spelling Camp Menotomy. As each girl recited an appropriate sentence, she flashed on her letter. The girls included Patricia Cox, Rita Egan, Betty Center, Penny Keatley, Marcia Moltman, Barbara Muller, Betty Booth, Virginia Whitehouse, Mona Shute, Patricia Abbott, Marianne Wood and Sarah Weston.

At the head table, besides Mrs. Yeames, Mrs. Williams and Mr. Wunderly, were Mr. and Mrs. James Kidder, Mrs. Hamilton Fish, Arthur J. Mansfield, Harold Yeames, Mr. and Mrs. Roderick Peters. At a second "head" table sat Mrs. Justin McCarthy, Mrs. Kenneth Reed, Mrs. Harold Noren, Mrs. Forest Cameron, Mrs. Norris Hoyt, Mrs. F. F. McCoy, Mrs. Stewart Whitehouse, Miss Mary Leveroni and Mrs. Mark Bradford, the latter being chairman of the evening.

Special tribute for their interest and help was paid to Mr. and Mrs. James Bailey and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Buttrick.

here from Cambridge a year and a half ago. He is the head of the J. H. Emerson Respirator Iron Lung Company in Cambridge, where the equipment used by the Arlington Fire Department is manufactured. Emerson originated the design of the iron lung that is used today.

In a conversation with Mrs. Connors and Mrs. Martell, the mothers of the two boys, heartfelt deal of work for some of the large gratitude was expressed for Emerson's heroic act, also the efficiency and kindness of the police and fire departments as well as Symmes Hospital.

Dougie Martell, who is in the third grade, was allowed to go to school on Monday but Billy Connors did not return to school until the middle of the week. He is in the fourth grade. Both boys were released from the hospital on Monday morning.

Earlier the same afternoon Robert Grannan of D. W. Grannan and Son, morticians, assisted in the rescue of a Cambridge boy, who broke through the surface of Spy Pond about 30 feet from shore, and was pulled to safety by a young companion. Officer Scannell also helped.

Donoghue has five sons, four of whom were in the service during World War II. One of the boys, John, is a survivor of the airplane carrier Wasp disaster. Two are connected with Mr. Donoghue in his business, the New England Boiler Setting Company. Another is a radio announcer while the remaining two are in Arlington schools.

During World War I, he was connected with the U. S. Steel Corporation in constructing industrial furnaces for the making of steel. Since 1919 he has been in building and erecting industrial boiler settings and refractory furnaces.

In 1928 he organized his own successful company, doing a great deal of work for some of the largest industrial power plants in New England. Throughout World War II his company did war work for the U. S. Maritime Commission in connection with all types of ships at the Ports of Boston and New York. At the same time, much work was done by the firm in effectuating the war effort in the explosives field.

Mr. Donoghue belongs to the National Association of Power Engineers, the Ninety-Nine Club and is a member of the St. Agnes Holy Name Society. He has been a property owner and taxpayer in Arlington for about thirty years. His wide-spread acquaintance through business administrators throughout New England undoubtedly would be of invaluable help in handling municipal affairs.
